2011 Shaping up to be a Banner Year And YOU Can Help Make it Happen

by: Mark Viola, President

Brrrrr - It sure feels like winter now. Thanksgiving is already in the rear view mirror and the rest of the holidays are fast approaching. Shortly after the New Year, our annual Winter Reunion will be upon us already. This year it promises to be a great time and is more in the spirit of a true reunion. We're also supporting a fantastic local cause, the NH Food Bank. If you haven't signed up yet, what are you waiting for? See Cassandra's write-up on page 6 for more details.

Shifting gears slightly, for a chapter our size we're extremely active. There are a slew of events already planned for 2011, both driving and social. It's shaping up to be a banner year, but we need YOUR help to pull everything off. We're looking for more people to step up and learn what it takes to keep the chapter running smoothly. Feel like making a few phone calls, pounding the pavement or even a keyboard? Step up and find out how YOU can help today. Your club needs you.

Now go finish up all that shopping you've been putting off and we'll see you at the Winter Reunion.

'till next time...

Mark

Thankful for the End of Year

by: Michael Morin

With the passing of elections comes the best times of the year. Holiday parades, Radio City kick lines, gluttonous feasts and household overspending. It is a tradition Americans can't possibly avoid. I beg you though, to put down your glogg or mead for just a moment. It can wait. Actually, if you've got friends around, it might not. I know the feeling.

So you enjoyed the year's worth of track time and other fun times at our various haunts but we've got your ticket to greater involvement. We are looking for volunteers for all facets of involvement in our organization. Rallies, reunions, Roundels, OH MY! If you like that sort of thing please contact Cassandra Vorissek-Creto. If you like your knuckles white and your tires bald then you will fit right in with Mark Viola. Their contact information can be found on our website.

Before you pick up your Winterfest please pick up your smartphone. Snap the QR code below. Don't know what a QR code is? It is a new style of barcode that when you snap a photo it will take you to a website encoded in the barcode. In this case it will lead you to our Chapter's website.

You can now return to your regularly scheduled program,

Michael

Paul joined the BMW CCA several months after receiving a brochure after his first BMW purchase at Dreher Holloway. That was nine years ago. Since then he has been active in many roles in the Chapter. At one time or other he has been secretary, membership chair, web site designer/admin and driving instructor. His favorite BMW model is the 507. Outside BMW enthusiast activities, you can find him watching movies, photographing anything that moves or sits still, volleyball, soccer or just spending time with his dog.

White Mountain Chapter's Winter Reunion 2011

A Great Time for Friends Old and New

by: Cassandra Vorisek-Creto, SEC Chair

A look back at the Winter Reunion of 2009.

With Thanksgiving just behind us, it is hard to think about exciting parties in January. Before you know it though, the new year will roll around, and the club's annual party and charitable fundraising event will be here. Don't miss out; register today! This year, there is a limit on the number of attendees, so register early to guarantee a place at the event of the season! Register online via the chapter website; see page 13.

The Winter Reunion will be held on January 22, 2011 at The Common Man in Concord from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. A silent auction and light musical entertainment will be a part of the event. In lieu of an actual "act", the entertainment will consist of a two-piece light jazz band. Great music, outstanding food and superb auction items are the highlights of the evening.

The New Hampshire Food Bank is the charity for this year's Reunion. As in the past, funds raised at the Winter Reunion are used by the club to assist a local charity that services all of New Hampshire. With much of the state still in the grips of a recession, many families are in need - more so now than in the past. Therefore we are requesting that all attendees bring a non-perishable food item to the party. All items will be given to the New Hampshire Food Bank. Just another way to show the generosity and kindness of the club's members. The club is working with a company who may match the money raised at this year's event - an opportunity to do even more to help the most!

Even if you are unable to attend, please consider a donation (monetary or otherwise) to the New Hampshire Food Bank. Your efforts will go a long way in helping others in need. To learn more about the New Hampshire Food Bank, visit their official website at www.nhfoodbank.org.

The 2010 Haunted Back Roads Rally

text by: David Harrison

photos by: Michael Morin

Carving up the beautiful autumn New Hampshire countryside.

The WMC held its long anticipated Haunted Rally in October. This Back Roads Rally, snowed out in 2009, necessitated a reschedule for 2010. With improved weather this year, on Sunday the 17th, over 30 adventurous participants arrived at the Merrimack starting point.

The first haunted site of the rally was the Common Man restaurant which was formerly the home of Matthew Thornton. Matthew was the last signer of the Declaration of Independence and left behind a great home in 1803 when he died. His son turned it into a pub along the Daniel Webster highway. Now the Common Man, it serves up great meals which were enjoyed by all who attended on that crisp autumn morning. None of our crowd claimed to see or hear Matthew even though the staff and Ghost Hunters have heard and noted strange happenings over the years.

After brunch the BMWs formed up at the Thornton Graveyard across the street from the Common Man to get their instruction handouts, leading them to seven other haunted sites along the 100 mile drive. A variety of cars headed south out of the parking lot towards a possible meeting with the unknown or undead. The mandatory release form let all participants know that they would proceed on this rally "at their own risk of bodily injury or death." I am glad to report everyone survived their trip which involved a day full of graveyards, haunted houses, and ghostly sites.

Our group rolled up in a variety of cars. A sporty BMW was the perfect car to drive on this beautiful day. Ron and Bonnie Goudreau brought their Z3 convertible and led the way as the first two on the course. Several other ragtops took advantage of the great trail and early sunshine. Some parties even brought the whole family like the Judds from Derry. Roland and Vivian Beaulé were hard to miss in their gorgeous bright red 328i. Isabelle Creto was the youngest participant at the age of four and is already an experienced backseat CCA event attendee. She did bring her Mom and Dad along for the ride and to pay for brunch.

Autumn in New Hampshire is beautiful and the leaves were at peak as the route followed back roads through the countryside. The self-paced run allowed folks to stop and visit highlighted spots of interest or be content to view everything from the road.

Most took a look at the Blood family headstone at Pine Hill. It made for a great photo opportunity. The 1814 Ocean Born Mary grave also deserved the attention of participants. For no real reason, Gilson Cemetery gave all who stopped a feeling of something sinister in the air.

The final haunted site was the New Hampshire Capital Building in Concord and the last stop of the rally was the Common Man restaurant just down the street. Those who stopped in for food and drink compared notes and tales of creepy graveyards, beautiful scenery, and chance meetings of other drivers throughout the afternoon. Overall, the event brought together old friends, new friends, and maybe a few ghosts.

These black and white images pale in comparison to the stunning full color originals. See them and others from the rally, in the the photo gallery on the chatper website: www.whitemtn-bmwclub.org -ed.

A Tale of Two Sisters Sharing the Passion and the Attention

by: David Harrison

Rachelle and Tracy are typical sisters. Both were born in Seattle, WA. They grew up together in California, each married an Air Force man (Rachelle picked me), and they both eventually moved to New Hampshire after retiring from the military lifestyle. This only partly de-model 5 Series and finally own a car built in the 21st century. That lasted until the next WMC meeting.

All the ladies at the meeting started talking about cars and preferences. Deb Maynard of 3D Auto Works fame, championed the values of her X3

Rachelle Harrison (left) and her sister Tracy Wolf love driving their twin X3 SAVs. They became "card carrying members" in the last year or two, finally following the lead of their longtime club member-husbands, David and Walt. All four enjoy the club, the benefits it has to offer and of course, all the camaraderie.

scribes the commonality only these siblings share. The sisters have been accused of walking, talking, and just in general acting alike.

Whether they are nurture or nature inspired, Rachelle and Tracy have both driven BMWs exclusively as primary transportation and recreation for years. Both are White Mountain Chapter members. These facts alone would hardly be news worthy to the WMC. Many families have a driveway full of roundels during family gatherings. BMWs are not as exotic as they once were when the chapter started and the few members back then felt somewhat counterculture owning their little German cars. These sisters took their story one, or should I say two, steps further.

Last summer Rachelle's 1999 7 Series developed a fatal case of water corrosion in the interior wiring and was totaled by the insurance company. The hunt was on for another BMW. Her first thought was to find a late and even offered a test drive. Rachelle became determined to find out what SAVs were in stock on the local car lots. Tracy offered Rachelle a ride, seeing that she did not have any other transportation while I was at work.

Nurture or nature inspired, both sisters enjoy being active in the BMW CCA

Rachelle called me that same day to tell me they had found a great X3 at BMW of Stratham. Ironically, it was Tracy, not Rachelle, who was signing the paperwork and trading in her 528 wagon. It would be another two weeks before Rachelle received the insurance check and purchased her very own X3. Now the sisters have a pair of 2006, "bluewater metallic" vehicles which could easily double as book ends. They are loving the shared attention.

Both sisters enjoy being active members of the BMW CCA. They have been involved with the SEC and are looking forward to getting more involved with the chapter.
